

Next Saturday CME Course in Pediatrics is March 20, 2010.

Colleagues:

A reminder that Cleveland Clinic Children's Hospital's Pediatric Saturday CME sessions for 2010 continues in just a few weeks. This monthly series is free and will be held at the main campus. Sessions begin at 8:00 AM.

The Saturday, March 20, course focuses entirely on the topic of Pediatric Behavioral Health with presentations from four of our specialists. The location is the Lerner Research Institute, 5th floor, room NA5-03/04, with parking and entry via the Skyway off of the East 100th Street garage.

To register, call 216.444.9187 or email Ivana Wilson @ Wilsoni2@ccf.org. For further information on these or other pediatric CME sessions, visit www.clevelandclinicmeded.com.

The Cleveland Clinic Foundation Center for Continuing Education designates this educational activity for a maximum of 4.0 AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™. Physicians should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

This is an excellent opportunity to earn credit at the hospital with these free courses. Please place an upcoming session on your calendars.
