

Dear Potential Exhibitors,

On behalf of Activity Director James Fernandez, MD, PhD, Department of Allergy & Clinical Immunology at Cleveland Clinic, and the Cleveland Clinic Center for Continuing Education, we request your support during the inaugural Updates in Primary Immunodeficiency CME symposium.

This course is designed for health care professionals, including physicians, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, fellows, and residents, with an interest in allergy, immunology, rheumatology, hematology and beyond.

The in-person symposium will be held at the InterContinental Hotel & Conference Center on Cleveland Clinic's Main Campus on April 4 and 5, 2025. A live stream option is also available. We anticipate 200 participants and faculty for the course.

The exhibit levels are Platinum - $15,000; Gold - $10,000; Silver - $5,000; Bronze - $3000. The Platinum and Gold levels include a non-CME satellite presentation. The exhibit hall will be outside of the lecture hall.
